

PhDC Career Seminar

“ Tips for Job Finding for Non-Japanese Ph.D. Candidates and Postdocs ”

This seminar will talk about important tips for successful job finding, including differences in the job finding timing, salary systems, serving length at one company, and the importance of the Japanese language in addition to what industry expects of Ph.D. graduates, strong research skills together with communication and teamwork capabilities.

Format :

Opening address by Prof. Akira Ando (PhDC, Tohoku Univ.)

Part I Presentations (15:05 – 16:30)

“How to find your job in and outside Japan”

(focusing on job finding window, salary systems, serving years at one company, importance of the Japanese language, industry expectations of Ph.D. graduates)

by Prof. Shu Kato (Tohoku Univ.)

“Suggestions for Ph.D. Candidates and Postdocs from Industry experience”

by Dr. Adam Matejovič (Sysmex)

“Suggestions for Ph. D. candidates and Postdocs from governmental research institute experience”

by Dr. Suyun Wang (NICT)

Part II Panel discussion (16:30 – 17:00)

Topic: How to write “Entry Sheet / Application Form and Research Summary”

-Importance of Skills, Leadership, and positive Ending (against negative questions) -

Moderator: Prof. Akimasa Sakuma (PhDC, Tohoku Univ.)

Panelists: Dr. Suyun Wang, Dr. Adam Matejovič,

Prof. Balachandran Jeyadevan (PhDC, Tohoku Univ.), Prof. Shu Kato

Date and time : July 16, 2024, 15:00 – 17:00

Location : Engineering Laboratory Complex Bldg., Room110

Who should attend : All non-Japanese Ph.D. candidates and postdocs enrolled at Tohoku University who want to find their jobs in and outside Japan

Hosted: by PhDC Office

PhDC
Tohoku

Tohoku University Advanced Graduate School
Center for Graduate School Reform
PhD Career Development Unit (PhDC)
<https://pgd.tohoku.ac.jp/phdc/>
high-ca@grp.tohoku.ac.jp

Registration Deadline :
7/5(Fri.)Noon
Ends early when capacity is reached.

Apply, using the QR code or the URL below
<https://forms.gle/W1a7vHsNdSxVacLP7>